B. &amp; O. SECTION FORCE.

B. & O. section force at this place have for several years been highly complimented for keeping the tracks and yards in such fine condition, but of late there has been an unusual activity in that line and no passerby can fail to notice the nicety and cleanliness of the railroad property. Mr. W. E. Church, foreman, ably assisted by Messrs. "Pokey" Blair, Wm. Eads, J. A. Gardner, Harry Cooper and Ray Church, are striving to win a premium offered by B. & O. officials for the best kept section. The force mentioned above know their business, and knowing it, do it.

NOW, WHAT ARE WE TO DO.

"Editing a newspaper is a nice thing. If we publish jokes people say we are rattle brained. If we don't we are fossils. If we publish original matter they say we don't give them enough selections. If we give them selections they say we are too lazy to write. If we don't go to church we are heathens. If we do go we are hypocrites. If we remain at the office we ought to be looking for news items. If we go out then we are not attending to business. If we wear old clothes they laugh at us. If we wear good clothes they say we have a pull. Now, what are we to do? Just as likely as not some one will say that we stole this from an exchange. So we did."

JEWISH HOLIDAYS.

Today the important holidays on the Jewish calendar will begin. This begins Rosh Hashona, the New Year which is observed in all countries. It marks the beginning of the year 5,670 on that calendar.

The Sabbath between New Year's Day and the Day of Atonement is known as the Shabos Shuvo, or Sabbath of Return, and is the holiest Sabbath of the Jewish year. Yom Kippur, or the Day of Atonement, falls on September 24th and 25th, as Jewish holidays begin at sundown one day and continue until sundown the next. The Day of Atonement is the most solemn holiday in the Jewish calendar.

The Festival of Tabernacles is known also as the Harvest Festival or Festival of Ingathering. It begins on the evening of October 18. This festival continues eight days and the closing days are themselves known as the Festival of Conclusion, because they bring to a close the entire season of fall holidays.

EPILEPTIC ASYLUM.

The Epileptic Asylum at Gallipolis, Ohio, may be set down as one of the greatest institutions in that State. Though located there only a few years ago, wonderful work has been done in buildings and the grounds have been so improved and beautified that the lawns, walks and evergreens are second to none anywhere. The cottages are kept in the cleanest condition, the attendants are polite to visitors, the patients are well cared for and it is a pleasure to visit this institution. We sometimes think that citizens of Gallipolis do not appreciate or realize the beauties of this grand home for the unfortunate.
